Part-Time Teacher of Music & Whole School Pianist

Start date: September 2021

Teaching pupils aged 4-11

Mayville High School is looking for a passionate and enthusiastic music teacher to join the Creative Arts Team. The right person will be the whole school pianist and confident in performing in concerts, assemblies and productions. The ability to lead choirs and hymn practice would be a distinct advantage.

Listed below are principal, but not exhaustive responsibilities of this post. This job description should be read in conjunction with the School 's Staff Handbook.

- Work for the Head of Creative Arts as directed.
- To be the pianist for the whole school, to include assemblies, concerts, prizegiving and productions etc.
- To lead choirs and hymn practice.
- Teaching keyboard lessons to pupils, group or individual lessons as appropriate.
- Arranging performance opportunities for pupils in school assemblies or in a range of other school performances.
- Arranging demonstrations in school in order to recruit new pupils.
- Encouraging pupils to participate in the musical life of the school, including supporting pupils in preparing their contribution to concerts or other events.
- To plan lessons and teach according to the needs of the individual pupils, taking into account the requirements for differentiation.
- To assess, record and report on the development, progress and attainment of pupils according to school's policy.
- To maintain class and school discipline amongst pupils and safeguard their health and safety when they are the responsibility of the school in accordance with agreed policies, procedures and standards.
- To maintain an up-to-date knowledge of available techniques, resources and developments in the subject area, review as necessary personal teaching methods and programmes to ensure that your own teaching is as effective and stimulating as possible.
- To become familiar with and to carry out all general school policies as specified in the Staff Handbook and Health and Safety Regulations.
- To undertake additional duties under the reasonable direction of the Headteacher or Deputy Headteacher.
